A RESOLUTION

1 Congratulating the Keystone Chapter of Associated Builders and 2 Contractors on its 50th anniversary.

3 WHEREAS, The Keystone Chapter of Associated Builders and 4 Contractors has reached the milestone of its 50th anniversary;
5 and

6 WHEREAS, The Keystone Chapter represents contractors in a 7 ten-county area in southcentral Pennsylvania, established in 8 1959; and

9 WHEREAS, The Keystone Chapter believes that every 10 construction contractor should be able to compete on any 11 construction project regardless of labor affiliation; and

12 WHEREAS, The Keystone Chapter also believes that contractors
13 enjoy the freedom to retain competitive subcontractors, to hire
14 and train a work force and to pay competitive wages as dictated 15 by market conditions; and

16 WHEREAS, The Keystone Chapter has made a significant

1 contribution to the success of its members and its members'
2 employees within the construction industry by being a full
3 service organization which provides apprenticeship and craft 4 training programs, management education, marketing and 5 networking opportunities, safety certifications, government
6 relations and grass-roots activities; therefore be it

7 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives extend to the 8 Keystone Chapter of Associated Builders and Contractors and its 9 members the most sincere congratulations and best wishes on this 10 important occasion in the Keystone Chapter's history.
