AMENDED IN ASSEMBLY MAY 11, 2010

Senate Concurrent Resolution

No. 73

Introduced by Senator DeSaulnier

February 12, 2010

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 73—Relative to the California Task Force on Youth and Workplace Wellness.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 73, as amended, DeSaulnier. California Task Force on Youth and Workplace Wellness.

This measure would continue the existence and set forth the membership of the California Task Force on Youth and Workplace Wellness, to perform duties to promote fitness and health in schools and workplaces. It would permit the task force to accept private funds and in-kind donations, require the task force to submit a report on its work to the Legislature on or before June 30, 2012, and provide that the task force would cease to exist on July 1, 2014, unless its existence is extended by a later enacted resolution.

7 and activity that is incongruent with the healthy habits encouraged 8 in health, nutrition, and physical education; and

9 WHEREAS, Californians' obesity and overweight rates are 10 leading to an epidemic of Type II Diabetes (formerly known as 11 Adult Onset Diabetes) among children and adults, with projections 12 that one in three children born in 2006 will contract the disease; 13 and

14 WHEREAS, The current rates of overweight, inactivity, obesity,
15 and diabetes are costing California over 41 billion dollars each 16 year in health costs and lost productivity; and

17 WHEREAS, A legislative task force is necessary to provide a 18 framework and support to help California companies enhance 19 employee wellness programs as a long-term health solution; and

20 WHEREAS, A legislative task force is necessary to provide a
21 framework and support to California's schools in order to create 22 healthier education environments; and

23 WHEREAS, The California Task Force on Youth and Workplace
24 Wellness was established in the 2001–02 Regular Session of the 25 Legislature by SCR 40 and SCR 99, and continued in the 2005–06
26 Regular Session of the Legislature by SCR 73, to promote fitness 27 and health in the Legislature, schools, and workplaces; and

28 WHEREAS, The California Task Force on Youth and Workplace
29 Wellness has successfully elevated the profile of fitness in the 30 California Legislature, in schools and workplaces statewide, and 31 has developed projects such as the Physical Education Research
32 for Kids project and the California Fit Business Award to continue 33 encouraging healthy eating and activity environments for all
34 Californians; now, therefore, be it
